

Andrew Liveris

In May 2012, University of Nairobi staff and students were treated to an interactive lecture by accomplished industrialist, author and distinguished business leader, Andrew Liveris, Chief Executive Officer, President and Chairman of Dow Chemical Company.

He highlighted the importance of innovation for the growth and development of the country. Mr. Liveris challenged the students not to let progress end with his generation as aspiration and creativity of the new generation is needed.